Jeff:

The first meeting of the Canadian Association of Professional Speakers (CAPS) B.C. was an overwhelming success. You played a major role in that success.

Your presentation - on the history and benefits of CAPS, as well as all the ready-to-use examples of tips you have picked up through CAPS and NSA - was exactly what was needed. As you know, over half of the 65+ attendees are already successful pro's (speakers & trainers); but many pens were scratching across notepads recording the ideas you so willingly shared. And shared with such style! I personally enjoyed your conversational, yet confident and professional presentation style, as well as your gentle humour.

CAPS B.C. is off to a flying start, and we appreciate also your enthusiastic and generous assistance with advice and guidance as we work toward duplicating (and even maybe exceeding) Calgary's success!

Sincerely
