Dear Jeff,

"Good energy boost! Very positive! Informative! Got my attention and kept it! Motivational, interesting and humorous! I feel up to meeting the challenge! I'd like to listen to Jeff again!" These are just a handful of remarks made by conference delegates who heard your keynote address "Thriving Under Fire".

I agree with the evaluations! You did a great job of kicking off our Campaign Leaders Conference this September. Delegates were energized and motivated to open their minds to a day full of learning and were prepared to meet the challenges of running a campaign for United Way!

The time we spent discussing the message was time well spent. I was pleased to hear you incorporate our lingo and massage the material into something meaningful and useful to United Way volunteers.

We were delighted with your presentation...and conference delegates want you back at next year's conference! Thanks Jeff!

Yours truly,

UNITED WAY OF THE ALBERTA CAPITAL REGION
